Complaints

At Scottish Building Society, we're committed to providing excellent service to all our members. We pride ourselves on our mutual status. We're owned by and run for the benefit of our members, so you can be confident that we have your best interests at heart.

We understand, though, that sometimes things don't go as expected. If you ever feel that our service doesn't meet your expectations, we'll do our very best to look into and resolve your complaint quickly and fairly.

How to make a complaint

There are several ways you can raise a complaint with us. You can do so:

- In person, by visiting one of our Relationship Centres and speaking to a member of staff. You can find our locations and opening hours here www.scottishbs.co.uk/our-locations
- Over the phone, by calling us on 0333 207 4007. Our lines are open 9am-5pm Monday to Friday (10am-5pm Wednesday).
- By writing to us at:
Scottish Building Society
SBS House

- By emailing us at mail@scotbs.co.uk

If you write to us or email us please include your name, address, account details, a contact number if you're happy for us to call you, and details of what happened and when it happened.

How we'll handle your complaint

When we receive your complaint, we'll make every effort to investigate it and resolve it for you as quickly and fairly as possible.

If we can't resolve it within three working days, we'll send you a letter acknowledging that we've received your complaint and that we're investigating it for you.

We'll keep you updated on the progress of your complaint throughout the investigation, and we'll write to you no later than 8 weeks after first receiving your complaint with either our final response or an explanation of why we haven't yet been able to resolve it along with an estimated time for when you can expect a resolution.

Resolution of your complaint

In our final response letter, we'll outline the details of our investigation, our decision, the steps we'll take to put it right if applicable, and information about the Financial Ombudsman Service.

If you're not satisfied with our response, or in the unlikely event your complaint isn't resolved within 8 weeks (or within 15 days for a complaint relating to an electronic payment), you can take the matter further by contacting:

Interest Rates

Savings Accounts

If we increase the interest rate on your account we'll let you know either by:

- advertising the increase on our website; or
- publishing a notice in our Relationship Centres.

If we reduce the interest rate on your savings account, we'll let you know in writing at least 14 days before the rate change.

Current rates are available online at www.scottishbs.co.uk

Mortgage Accounts

Interest is normally charged from the date of drawdown of the mortgage funds until the end of that month, and then monthly thereafter on the amount owed.

Please note the Society does have a small number of historic accounts where interest is charged on an annual basis. If you have a mortgage with us we recommend you refer to your original mortgage conditions, or alternatively contact us to confirm the details of your mortgage.

An adjustment to the interest charged is made immediately for individual capital repayments made to the account.

When redeeming your mortgage, interest will be calculated to the date of redemption.

We'll write to you if we make any changes to mortgage interest rates.

Rules of the Society

All accounts are issued and operated subject to the Society's Rules. You can download a copy of our Rules at www.scottishbs.co.uk
